PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The General Federation has always recognized that the American way of life has its source in the home; and that the moral and spiritual strength of the nation radiates from the home; and

WHEREAS, family life based on moral and spiritual values is vital to the preservation of American ideals, and

WHEREAS, there is a need to preserve our priceless heritage by strengthening our homes, the foundation of our nation, and

WHEREAS, American Home Week will be observed November 24-28, 1958 by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and its members to rededicate themselves to the task of preserving the integrity of the nation through programs directed toward strengthening the American Home in family relationships, recreation, education and spiritual living.

NOW THEREFORE, I, GOVERNOR Joe Foss Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim November 24-28, 1958 as

AMERICAN HOME WEEK

In South Dakota and call upon all citizens of this state to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies with the purpose of dedicating and preserving the American way of life through strengthening the homes, the foundation of the nation.

In Witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 17th day of November 1958.
